BoD Duties Checklist

Management of the company

- Set a corporate strategy in accordance with the vision and mission of the company, its statutes, if possible, set the strategy that is aligned with the owner’s strategy.
- Analyze strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats that concern the company (SWOT Analysis) keeping in mind company’s strategy.
- Select the means and the resources that are needed to implement the corporate strategy, adhering to the specifications set out in a business plan.
- Issue instructions to the management in order implement the business strategy and execute the business plan.
- Ensure that every undertaken business activity is in line with and comply with the legal, regulatory and statutory provisions (compliance).
- Determine personnel policies including policies for dealing with unions and undertake measures that prevent discrimination and sexual harassment.
- Obtain all necessary regulatory approvals needed to undertake and pursue business activities.
- Develop a Risk Management Policy ensuring that there is a systematic collection and analysis of all relevant risks and set up preventative measures.
- In case of subsidiaries, set requirements concerning the management of the group, in particular make permissible references to the group structure (group liabilities).
- Develop an Intellectual Property Strategy, ensuring that all relevant intellectual property is protected, specifying in which form and in which countries the IP is protected.
- Set up Communications Strategy that covers both internal and external communication, and if possible include regulations on social media and include monitoring measures.
- Specify the Principles of Contract Management including provisions on prevention of excessive risk-taking through guarantees and penalties.
• Make decisions upon conclusion of the important agreements such as exclusive distribution, agency agreements, licensing agreements or construction law contracts.
• Ensure the necessary protection of all intellectual property, in particular, company name, domain names, brand names, trademarks, designs and patents held by the company.
• Hold meetings of the board in accordance with the management calendar in order to lead and control the company and, if there are deviations from the set goals, intervene.
• At least once per year critically discuss an up-to-date Master Risks List that should include large risks and planned measures to minimize these.
• Review, at least once per year, the company’s insurance situation and ensure that the insurance coverage is complete and appropriate.

Company organization
• Decide upon composition of a Board and appoint a chairperson, a vice chairperson and a board secretary.
• Establish a remuneration policy that sets compensation for duties and responsibilities carried out by members of the board and includes provisions for compensation for additional functions performed by members and other expenses.
• Delegate the executive management functions to a member of the board and create a corresponding job description.
• Approve the organizational structure of the company and develop a corresponding organizational chart.
• Appoint a chief (risk) security officer and determine his/her tasks and responsibilities in the job description.
• Establish Organizational Regulations that clarify tasks, competences and responsibilities within the company.
• Determine the functional diagram delineating organizational and operational level responsibilities within the company.
• Adopt all necessary regulations and directives that ensure that company’s operations in carried out in accordance with a business plan.
• Decide upon the required management tools (MIS concept) that enable adequate and timely provision of information to the board of directors.

• Determine who has the Authority to Sign and, if necessary, develop an internal Signing Authority Directive.

• Set up an Employee Compensation Policy and include provisions that enable annual review should revisions be necessary.

• Ensure that the entries in the commercial register are complete and accurate.

• In case of registered shares, update and control share register clarifying which shares have been physically issued.

• In case of registered shares, as required, approve the transfer of shares taking into account any statutory restrictions on transferability.

• Ensure that minutes of the board meetings are complete and accurate and that originals of minutes are kept for up to 10 years.

Financial management of the company

• Issue directives to the used accounting principles, including the design of the financial statements.

• Carry out a periodic revision of the long-term financial plans in accordance with the business plan.

• Set the budget on an annual basis, including the investment budget, which can be used as a basis for planning or to check for deviations from planned targets.

• Set up a cash pooling system in the group and make necessary safeguards for the subsidiaries in a Cash Pool Regulations.

• Develop Investment Regulations in order to ensure the risk-conscious and sustainable investment of assets, especially in cases of excess liquidity

• Determine the financial institutions with which the company works, such as banks and leasing companies.

• Decide upon the approved pension scheme (pension fund) and ensure that provisions cover all company employees.
• Monitor that the debt-to-equity ratio or the ratio between equity capital and borrowings (loan capital) is adequate (self-financing).

• Review current liquidity and future liquidity requirements on the monthly basis (12-month rolling liquidity plan).

• Ensure that financial statements include all necessary provisions for taxes, bad debts, litigations and warranties.

• The adoption of the annual financial statements with full disclosure of contingent liabilities for the Annual General Meeting.

• Permanent monitoring and ensuring that all are national insurance and tax properly payable if booked and paid.

• Ensure lawful and independent audit of the annual financial statements, including consolidated financial statements, unless a legal opt-out is selected.

• Request that auditors specifically review areas which were not checked in the previous year (Audit Plan).

• Monitor any possible loans, even if they were approved by the Board.

Appointment, monitoring and dismissal of management

• Recruit, select and appoint members of management in accordance with the organizational chart.

• Determine the compensation of the executive management including expenses and profit sharing regulations.

• Decide upon conclusion, modification and termination of labor contracts including job descriptions of the executive management.

• Set annual goals for the executive management including requirements for personal and professional development / training.

• Carry out assessment of all members of the executive management against established criteria on the annual basis and set up improvement measures.

• Take necessary measures in case of irregularities or offenses by the management (special audit or complaint).
• Ensure that the company engages in a succession planning of management including arrangement of deputies in case of last minute changes or losses.
• Monitor labor disputes and ensure that unnecessary litigation is avoided.

Preparation of the business reports and the AGM

• Hold editorial responsibility for the formulation of the annual report, consisting of financial statements, annual report and consolidated financial statements.
• Decide whether to publish an annual report, in particular, on the Internet or on how to distribute printed copies.
• Provide information on risk assessment in the notes to the financial statements, in particular, the organization of risk management and risk policy.
• Set the date and place of the General Assembly and notify shareholders or other special invitees.
• Prepare financial statements, such as the balance sheet, income statement and include notes in the profit distribution statement.
• Determine the agenda and include the proposals of the Board and proposals of shareholders.
• Review the independence of the auditors and ensure the fees paid to the auditor are done in accordance with the Election of the Auditor Proposal.
• Ensure that invitations, along with all the related documents, are sent out no later than the 20 day statutory requirement or even earlier.
• Invite auditors and group auditors as well as a notary public in case of changes to the statutes or company liquidation.
• Provide the documents, which must available by law for inspection at the companies’ registered offices (at least an annual report and an audit report).

Implementation and enforcement of its resolutions of AGM

• Participate in the AGM, be able to act as the chair, and comply with the obligation to provide information to shareholders.
• Guarantee that only authorized persons have access to the AGM in case of objections from shareholders.
• Ensure that votes are correctly counted and that there are provisions for a secrete ballot voting.
• Maintain compete and correct minutes of the General Meeting and ensure that originals of minutes are kept for up to 10 years.

Appeals and court notifications
• Challenge the decisions of GM when these contradict legal, regulatory or statutory requirements.
• Request an interim audit to be carried out in case of a legitimate concern over-indebtedness.
• Convene a GM, if over-indebtedness is imminent or is determined and request remedial measures to be undertaken.
• Notify the court in case of case of failed remedial measures or over-indebtedness and provide respective balance sheets.